Civil Servants from Delhi: A Contribution Worth Mentioning

Delhi contributes about 25-30% of total IAS officers in India. This includes aspirants from SHRI RAM IAS and similar best IAS coaching in Delhi. Delhiâ??s resources and environment help students achieve their goals.

Pattern & Stages of IAS Exam

The UPSC Civil Services Examination (CSE) is highly competitive. The exam is conducted in three stages: Prelims, Mains, and Interview. Letâ??s break down each stage in detail.

Prelims (400 Marks)

SHRI RAM IAS

The Prelims is the first stage of the exam and serves as a screening test for candidates. It consists of two papers:

- Paper 1: General Studies (200 Marks): This paper tests a candidateâ??s knowledge of various subjects. These include current affairs, Indian polity, geography, history, economic and social development, and environmental issues. It assesses general awareness and analytical skills.
- Paper 2: CSAT (200 Marks, Qualifying): The Civil Services Aptitude Test (CSAT) assesses candidatesâ?? aptitude. It covers areas such as logical reasoning, analytical ability, decision-making, problem-solving, and comprehension. This paper is qualifying in nature, meaning candidates need to score at least 33% to move forward to the Mains stage. However, CSAT marks do not count towards the final score.

Total Marks for Prelims: 400

Mains (1750 Marks)

Once candidates clear the Prelims, they move to the Mains stage, which is the most crucial phase of the examination. It consists of 9 papers in total, with both qualifying and merit-based papers. The breakdown is as follows:

- Qualifying Papers:
  - Paper A: Indian Language (300 Marks)
  - Paper B: English (300 Marks)
    These papers test the candidateâ??s proficiency in Indian languages and English. The marks in these papers do not count towards the final merit. However, candidates must secure a minimum score to qualify for the next stage.
- Merit-based Papers:
  - Paper 1: Essay (250 Marks)
  - Paper 2-5: General Studies (4 papers, each 250 Marks)
    - General Studies Paper I: Indian Heritage and Culture, History, Geography

    - General Studies Paper II: Governance, Constitution, Polity, Social Justice, and International relations
    - General Studies Paper III: Technology, Economic Development, Biodiversity, Environment, Security, and Disaster Management
    - General Studies Paper IV: Ethics, Integrity, and Aptitude
  - Paper 6-7: Optional Subject (each 250 Marks)
    Candidates select one subject from a list of optional subjects provided by UPSC. The marks obtained in these papers have a significant weightage in the final ranking.

Total Marks for Mains: 1750

Interview (275 Marks)

The Interview stage is the final step in the UPSC exam process. After clearing the Mains exam, the candidates attend the Personality Test or Interview. The Interview carries 275 marks. A board of experts conducts it to assess the candidateâ??s personality, communication skills, and decision-making abilities.

SHRI RAM IAS

This stage evaluates factors like:

- Intellectual qualities: Depth of knowledge, critical thinking, and the ability to articulate thoughts clearly.
- Personality traits: Confidence, integrity, and maturity.
- General awareness: Awareness of current affairs and the candidateâ??s opinion on social, economic, and political issues.

The Interview tests how a candidate reacts under pressure. It also evaluates their ability to handle real-world situations.

Total Marks for Interview: 275

Total Marks for UPSC Exam: 2025

The marks obtained in the Mains and Interview stages are combined to determine the final ranking of candidates. The total marks for the UPSC Civil Services Examination are 2025 (1750 from Mains + 275 from the Interview). The combined score determines the final merit list. Top-ranking candidates secure positions in various civil services, such as IAS, IPS, IFS, and others.

To sum up, the UPSC exam is a rigorous test of knowledge, aptitude, and personality. Each stage filters out candidates to ensure only the most capable move forward. It selects only those who are truly capable of handling the responsibilities of a civil servant.
