Pattern & Stages of IAS Exam (Including Marks Wise Distribution)

The UPSC Civil Services Exam is one of the toughest exams in India. It consists of three stages:

1. Preliminary Exam (Prelims): The first stage is the UPSC Preliminary exam, which is objective in nature. It consists of two papers – General Studies Paper-I and CSAT (Civil Services Aptitude Test) Paper-II.

Marks Distribution for Prelims:

- General Studies Paper-I: 200 marks
- CSAT Paper-II: 200 marks (qualifying paper)

2. Main Exam (Mains): The Mains exam consists of nine papers, including Essay, General Studies, and optional subjects. The papers are descriptive in nature.

Marks Distribution for Mains:

- Essay: 250 marks
- General Studies Paper I-IV: 250 marks each
- Optional Subject Papers: 250 marks each (two papers)

3. Personality Test (Interview): After clearing the Mains, candidates are called for the Personality Test (interview) which is conducted by a panel of experts.

Marks for Interview:

- Interview: 275 marks

The total marks in the UPSC CSE are 2025. The Prelims are used only for qualification, while the Mains and Interview marks count towards the final selection.
