The UPSC Civil Services Examination (CSE) is one of the toughest exams in India. It is the gateway to prestigious positions such as IAS (Indian Administrative Service), IPS (Indian Police Service), IFS (Indian Foreign Service), and more. Every year, thousands of aspirants take this exam with hopes of becoming an IAS officer. The exam tests knowledge, analytical skills, and decision-making abilities.

To become an IAS officer, you must pass the UPSC CSE. The process involves three stages: the Preliminary Exam (Prelims), the Mains Exam, and the Interview (Personality Test). Each stage is crucial and requires thorough preparation.

Pattern & Stages of IAS Exam

The UPSC CSE exam is divided into three stages:

1. Preliminary Exam (Prelims)

The Prelims consists of two papers:

- General Studies Paper I: Focuses on current affairs, history, geography, and general knowledge.
- CSAT (Civil Services Aptitude Test): Tests your reasoning, logical ability, and comprehension skills.

Both papers are objective-type, but only the General Studies Paper I is considered for the final selection.

2. Mains Exam

The Mains exam has nine papers, including:

- Essay Paper
- General Studies Papers (I-V)

- Optional Subject Paper (related to your chosen subject)
- Language Papers (English and one Indian language)

The Mains exam tests your in-depth knowledge of subjects and your writing skills.

3. Interview (Personality Test)

The final stage is the Interview, which assesses your personality, communication skills, and suitability for a career in civil services. It is conducted by a panel of experts.
