SHRI RAM IAS: The Best IAS Coaching in India and Best IAS Coaching in Nagpur

SHRI RAM IAS is a well-known institute for UPSC preparation. It has guided thousands of students toward success. With expert faculty and well-planned courses, students get the right approach for IAS preparation.

IAS Course Structure: Prelims, Mains & Interview

The IAS exam consists of three important stages: Prelims, Mains, and Interview. Each stage tests different skills required for a civil servant. A well-planned preparation strategy is needed to clear all these stages.

The Prelims stage is the first hurdle in the IAS exam. It includes two objective-type papers – General Studies (GS) and the Civil Services Aptitude Test (CSAT). GS tests knowledge of subjects like history, geography, polity, economy, and current affairs. CSAT checks logical reasoning, comprehension, and basic numeracy skills. Prelims is only a screening test, and marks are not counted in the final ranking.

The Mains stage is more detailed and includes nine descriptive papers. These papers assess the candidate's writing skills, analytical ability, and in-depth knowledge. There are four General Studies papers, two optional subject papers, one essay paper, and two language papers. Mains is the most challenging stage, as it determines the final merit list ranking. Candidates must write structured and well-explained answers to score well.

The Interview stage is the final test of a candidate's personality, confidence, and decision-making skills. A board of experts evaluates how well the aspirant can handle pressure, solve problems, and express opinions. The interview is not just about knowledge but also about communication skills, honesty, and presence of mind. SHRI RAM IAS institute provides guidance, mock interviews, and feedback to help aspirants perform well.
