What is UPSC CSE Exam and How to Become an IAS?

The UPSC Civil Services Examination (CSE) is a nationwide competitive exam conducted by the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) to recruit candidates for various civil services in India, including IAS, IPS, IFS, and others. The exam consists of three stages: Prelims, Mains, and the Interview.

Mukherjee Nagarâ??s Contribution to Civil Servants

Mukherjee Nagar, a bustling hub in Delhi, has become a landmark for UPSC aspirants. With numerous coaching centers located here, itâ??s home to hundreds of successful civil servants every year. The areaâ??s coaching institutes, including SHRI RAM IAS, are known for their expertise in preparing candidates for the rigorous UPSC exam.

Pattern and Stages of IAS Exam

The UPSC CSE exam is divided into three main stages:

Prelims:

This is the first stage, consisting of two papers â?? General Studies (GS) and Civil Services Aptitude Test (CSAT). It is a screening test and the marks scored here are not counted for the final selection.

Mains:

The second stage involves nine papers, including compulsory papers like General Studies, Essay, and two optional papers. This stage is crucial as the marks obtained here are added to the final score.

SHRI RAM IAS

Interview:

The final stage is the personality test, which assesses candidates on their aptitude and decision-making skills. The interview carries 275 marks, and combined with Mains, it determines your rank in the final list.
