Pattern & Stages of IAS Exam

Understanding the pattern is key to effective preparation for the UPSC. The IAS exam has three stages:

1. Preliminary Exam

This stage has two objective papers:

- General Studies I: 200 marks.
- CSAT (General Studies II): 200 marks.

You need to score qualifying marks in CSAT. General Studies I decides your selection for the next stage.

2. Mains Exam

The Mains exam is descriptive and has nine papers:

1. Paper A: Indian Language (300 marks).
2. Paper B: English (300 marks).
3. Essay: 250 marks.
4. General Studies I: 250 marks.
5. General Studies II: 250 marks.
6. General Studies III: 250 marks.
7. General Studies IV: 250 marks.
8. Optional Paper I: 250 marks.
9. Optional Paper II: 250 marks.

Out of 1750 marks in Mains, you need high scores to qualify for the interview. Answer writing is important in Mains exams.

3. Interview

This stage is worth 275 marks. The interview panel assesses your personality, decision-making, and leadership abilities. The total score is 2025 marks (Mains + Interview).
